

SPORTING IDEAS

—
ALKEN

1830

Ex Libris
JOHN AND MARTHA DANIELS

IDEAS

W. Allen del.

I have an IDEA I shall win now, if I can but CARRY in my WEIGHT.

London, Published by The M<sup>rs</sup> Lane Stationers, 115.

IDEAS
Getting O.V. with a good chance of coming OFF.

11. 11. 11. 11.

In George Harris I have an IDEA that the thing is not quite so easy as I anticipated

London: Published by The "M.T." Press, 21, Haymarket, W.C. May 17th 1874

IDEAS

THE "IDEAS"

My good people I beg you would not disturb yourselves—but have you any IDEA which way the Hounds went?

London, Published by DODGE, Lean 18 Regent Street W.C.

W. H. 1877

I have a strong IDEA we shall hit som' thing this time

London Published by Tho. Agnew & Sons, 15, Abchurch Lane, E.C. 4

IDEAS.

W. H. Stiles del.

I have no IDEA what could induce me to follow you over this d—d rotten Bridge.

London, Published by Tho: M'Lean, 23. Haymarket, Dec: 11. 30.

IDEAS.
Getting DOWN with no certainty of getting UP.

W. Allen Del.

I have an IDEA that this is a most important and effective Fall

London. Published by The "M" Lion & Hammett, May 1st 1850

IDEAS.

W. S. Allen, Del.

I have an IDEA that this Fence is either TOO HIGH or that my Horse is TOO SHORT.

London. Published by Thos. Agnew & Sons, 16, Haymarket, 1834.

IDEAS

10th April 1830

My good fellows I have an IDEA that this sort of RACE was made for only one at a time to go through

London. Published by Tho<sup>s</sup>. W. Lean 26. Newmarket Street 1830

IDEAS.
Get DUT with but a poor chance of getting CLEAY.

My dear Sir,
 As dear fellows I should be extremely sorry to speak of any Country with disrespect, but I have an IDEA that the Water hereabouts is NOT exceedingly fragrant.

London, Published by Tho: W. Loom, 48 Baymarket, May 1st 1750

IDEAS.
Getting O'ERR with a likelihood of coming O.N.

11. "IDEAS" No. 1

My good fellow: I have an IDEA that I shall be right O.N the top of you.

London: Published by The "MILITARY" & "NAVY" MARKET, 17, 18, 19, 20, 21, 22, 23, 24, 25, 26, 27, 28, 29, 30, 31, 32, 33, 34, 35, 36, 37, 38, 39, 40, 41, 42, 43, 44, 45, 46, 47, 48, 49, 50, 51, 52, 53, 54, 55, 56, 57, 58, 59, 60, 61, 62, 63, 64, 65, 66, 67, 68, 69, 70, 71, 72, 73, 74, 75, 76, 77, 78, 79, 80, 81, 82, 83, 84, 85, 86, 87, 88, 89, 90, 91, 92, 93, 94, 95, 96, 97, 98, 99, 100.

IDEAS

I begin to have an IDEA that this TANDER driving is not altogether free from danger

London. Published by Tho: McEuen 18 Haymarket June 1st 1820

IDEAS.

Is that really a AKE, only think, that I should not have an IDEA that that could be a AKE

I. 18. in. Published for D. M. Evans, 211 Broadway, June 1856.

IDEAS.

This is just to give you an IDRA of a STEEPLE CHASE.
London Published by Tho: M'Lean, 26 Haymarket, May 18th 1830

IDEAS.

W. Allen Del.

I had not the most distant IDEA of GETTING IN for such sport as this London, Published by Tho. Agnew, 26 Haymarket, W. 19th 1850

IDEAS.

By Albert, Del.

I have an IDEA that this is our NEWMAN CAVALRY REGIMENT, and that the Horses are positively rode by the Owners London. Published by Thos. Agnew & Sons, 15, Abchurch Lane, May 18th 1850.

"The Alarm Bell"

I positively have no IDEA what I am to do in this case - have you my good fellow?

London Published by The W. Isaac, 26, Newmarket Street 1836

IDEAS.

Getting home after getting into every thing but JIDT' Water.

*You can have no IDEA what a magnificent day I have had at least a dozen Gall, and twice in the breeze. Oh! it was a most magnificent day be kind enough to LEND ME A HAT.

London: Published by "The W. Lane 26 Newmarket Street" 1850

THE KANS
Getting D.V. with a certainty of coming T.V.

P. Allen del.

I have an IDEA that this is a situation of considerable difficulty, and by no means an every day occurrence.

London Published by The 'M' Lane 24, Haymarket, W. May 1850

THE PASSAGE OF A CAB.

D. Alden Del.

I say Captain I have an IDEA we have run feet of several things in our passage

"See Sail by T. W. W. Linn 26 November 1882"

GOING IN FIRST RATE STYLE.

T. Allen del.

I have an IDEA it's ten to one but we are down now — but I'll take nine to three that the Horses all go over.

London Published by Tho. W. Stoen, 56 Haymarket 1847

A TANDEM NOT QUITE RIGHT.

W. Allen Del.

I say my dear Sir have you not an IDEA that there is considerable danger in the present case.

London, Published by Tho: M<sup>o</sup> Lane, 25, Bevmarket, 1827

GETTING A TEAM TOGETHER.

H. Alken Del.

I have an IDEA that I have got them rather too much together now

London Published by Thos. M'Lean 26 Haymarket 1857

A CURRIE MATCH.

1850. A. N. 1850.

I have an IDEA my Lord that nothing but time or a stone wall will stop them and I'll bet a cool hundred that Frank will not head them for the next mile.

THE REMAINS OF A STANHOPE.

P. Allen del.

I say my clever feller have you an IDEA you can make this thing capable of progression?

London Published by Tho: McLean 26 Haymarket 1887

IDEAS.

I shall soon leave all my IDEAS.

IDEAS

I had not the most distant IDEA of what was on the other side — but have a strong IDEA I shall be off.

IDEAS

I say my hearty chap here, you say I D E N what a right to be done in the present case.

IDEAS.

I do not think he has an IDEA left.

But I hate an IDEA that he is dead.

IDEAS

W. Allen del.

I have an IDEA, he is saying And with him my LEE' comes

IDEAS.

I say old Buck have you any IDEA where I can find the Hounds?

Beiging, your pardon Sir, I have an IDEA you had better have a look at them in the kennel.

IDEAS.

W. Allen, del.

I say old Farnace, have you any IDEA how far it is to Melton—yes I have, it is rather better than 22 miles, I take it

IDEAS.

I say my dear fellow I have an I.D.B., & that it will make a considerable alteration in your personal appearance.

Throwing IDEAS. Out.

Mr. Wm. L.

I say my Buck, you avert no IDEA when the Chucks air      are you?

Thrown... IDEAS. Qt.

W. B. Woodcut.

London: Published by the W. B. Woodcut. Barnard.

My high Tim, I have an IDEA we shall soon be off, for my Orse seems to understand it

So does mine don't your ART beat Joe?—

IDEAS.

They may call this pleasure: but I bore an IDEA that it has brought me into considerable trouble.

Full IDEAS. Crr.

I ave an IDEA I am down now Tom.

And I ave an IDEA our Saddles and put on the proper way

IDEAS.

W. Allen del.

I say my hearty fellow have you any U.F.N. where I can get a personal conveyance to Melton.

IDEAS.

I say, my good fellow, have you not an IDEA that this hunting is exceedingly absurd?

116.
Going to Cover

*I say Bob, von addle ut an IDEA
I could not see in it*

I can't look just now, for I have an other thing to do in the night

UDRANS,
finding the Lea

30. 1880. 10. 1.

I say he, you add not in UDRANS a deep out you look at my IT

As my for but that filler says to even UDRAN that the bottom and

IDEAS.

Turning them

London Published by The "Penny" Press, 10, Fleet Street.

I say my boy we are not some IDB, AS about I told me we arnt we?

I think we are a good man a pretty good dinner we eat, by the way, take me, as I think you know make Tiers devilish tight.

